Webinar Bibliography and Suggested Readings

As a general rule, if in doubt, your best destination for resources and guidance will be the American Alliance of Museums (AAM) and the International Council of Museums (ICOM). There is also the American Association of Museum Directors (AAMD), but it has differing views, in comparison to ICOM and AAM, on specific subjects relating to deaccessioning. However, all three are the most reliable, ethically-sound, and respected museum organizations available to professionals.
